

BIOGRAPHY - GREGORY J HUMPHRIES

Greg Humphries is the founder and director of High Jingo Consulting Pty. Ltd. Previously, he enjoyed a 22 year career with Altria / Philip Morris where he held a variety of executive IT positions both locally and internationally. With diverse experience across systems development, technology management and IT leadership, Greg's specialty is driving value from IT with a service focus in international environments.

Joining Philip Morris in 1986 as Systems Manager, Finance and Administration, Greg gained broad knowledge in enterprise applications & technology. In 1990 he transferred to Tokyo as MIS Manager for Philip Morris Japan, where he drove integration with corporate platforms. In 1991, he returned to Australia to establish the Asia Pacific Systems Centre, a shared services applications development team which he managed until 1994 when he was appointed General Manager of Philip Morris Information Services Ltd. based in Melbourne with responsibility for systems development and IT infrastructure delivery to Philip Morris businesses across Asia Pacific. In April 1999, Greg transferred to Philip Morris Management Corp. in New York where he held the position of Director, Global Information Systems and Shared Services responsible for the transformation of ICT service delivery to all Corporate functions. In December 2001, he returned to Australia to take up the position of Director, Information Technology Service Centre - Asia Pacific Pty. Ltd., where he ensured the cost effective delivery of shared IT services to all Altria entities across Asia.

Prior to Philip Morris, Greg held systems development and management roles with Australia Post, Caterpillar and Stokes.

Greg holds a Graduate Diploma in Computing & Information Systems from the Chisholm Institute of Technology and is an Alumnus of the Advanced Management Program, INSEAD, France. He is a Member of both the Australian Computer Society and the Australian Institute of Company Directors.

Greg lives on the Mornington Peninsula with his wife, Robin. In his spare time he enjoys golf, photography, music and motorsport.